

I am writing to voice my concern that increased media consolidation will only serve to enable the media to choose what news the public gets to see, hear, and read. I believe that to have a democracy the public must be informed, and I believe that the public can only be adequately informed when they are exposed to a variety of perspectives and oppions. As fewer and fewer corporations control more and more of our media, we lose this variety.

thank you

annie rentz